Essence of All

9-13-2008

The Bridge to Ascension is your consciousness.

The translation of the Language of Love is what carries you across that bridge from one plane to another.

In order to understand Ascension, you must understand Translation Alchemy. In order to understand Translation Alchemy, you must understand Balance. In order to understand Balance, you must be in balance within yourself. In order to be in balance within yourself, you must know and understand Love, in order to know and understand love, you must be in the Heart.

To be in the heart, is to make the connection between your physical body and the entire spectrum of soul essence. Once you do this, Ascension is a reality in this lifetime.

The disconnect you have in incarnate form is from soul essence. Many of you think you are in connection and have an understanding of soul essence. But we, the Masters, know that you have a connection to your ego-ic soul which is still a fraction of the entire Logoi and Cosmic Soul Essence. The structure of the soul has been expounded upon and discoursed upon by many masters through many channels. (The meaning of the Logoi is most accurately described and taught by Philo of Alexandria. According to Philo, Logoi means “creative principle” and “Divine Wisdom”.)

As you have seen in the Essence of All Things discourse (9-10-08), there is a tripartite expression of all creation: feeling, thought and form. The cosmic soul aspect is related to feeling, the logoi soul aspect is related to thought and the egoic soul aspect is the expressed form that emerges from the cosmic-logoi soul combination. Fully expressed form appears in matter as individuated energy. You are individuated energy but you are not separate energy. There really is no such thing. To consciously and fully connect in individuated form to the Essence of All is one of the translations of Ascension.

Soul Essence is Love

The Soul itself is limitless and boundless, just as is the Creation of the Creator. The Soul is not a separate expression of any one thing. Is there such a thing as a “personal soul?” You believe that you “have a soul” and that soul is your personal energy ex -is-tense. We are suggesting that this fundamental belief is what limits so many of you to the lower realms of consciousness which are based on separation and the belief in a personal soul identity. If I am not personal consciousness and personal experiences, then who am I, what am I, what is real? Ah! Now we are getting somewhere.

Except for the very few, ascension in your current plane of expression, is a shift of consciousness that occurs in dis-carnate form, meaning, after physical death. In this limited sense, you have all experienced ascension because you have lived countless lives and died countless deaths. You have shifted energy form and focus from largely electro-magnetic in the visible light spectrum, to largely etheric in the non-visible light spectrum. You have done this when your physical body expires. At the moment, the process you experience is this:

You shift energy form and focus when your physical body expires,

You ascend into the etheric, non-material soul realm

You review the “coursework” that you set out in your lesson plan before incarnating; you process a sort of “spiritual accounting” worksheet

You develop another course for your soul’s individuated expression based on this accounting and on further areas for exploration and development (as part of a sort of R & D project that is developed among large groups of souls working together)

You present this course syllabus to the Board of Karma and the Divine Directors

After a review and reformulation, you reincarnate back into the same plane of existence to experience another turn of the wheel.

This is obviously, a description of the workings of karma, without the misconception of judgment that you attach to karmic experience. Karma is not primarily cause and effect. This is a vast oversimplification. We describe karma as conscious energy evolution. We attach no judgment to this process for soul essence evolves in great measure on this path. There is a point, a shift in the time-space continuum where this process can be transmuted to something new. This point is rapidly approaching for all of incarnate humanity. There is a specific reason that the population of incarnate souls is increasing by over 200,000 per day! What could that be? It is most definitely not that the human soul is stupid! It is that the cosmic-logic-egoic soul is inestimably wise. Millions of souls are asking to have the opportunity to experience incarnate ascension potential. And the good news is that you are already here!

You see, you are not “destined” to stay on the karmic wheel forever! That is what a significant part of the Ascension Shift is about(!): the potent spiritual potential to exit the wheel through the power of consciousness and the grace of energy accelerations and alignments that are gathering great momentum. You are spiraling into something new: New Beginnings for Love. You are asking: “But don’t we have to work very, very hard and very, very long to absolve all of our karma?” The answer is yes and no. Yes, you have worked very hard and very long to shift your karmic “charge” but it is not all about absolution as you conceive of it. There is an element of Divine Forgiveness and Cosmic Dispensation which discharges karma at certain critical alignment times in a soul-ar system. During these times, the work becomes easier, the road is shorter and the path is illuminated. This Ascension Lifetime is such a time. What is required for this shift to occur is critical mass conscious connection and compassion. We are sharing with your our Love-Wisdom of how to participate in this shift.

You are becoming more and more conscious that you may exit the karmic cyclical wheel by your own choice and that choice is based on Service to Others in connection, consciousness and compassion. Service to Others. We give you three vibrational formulas that assist you in this process of shift:

Connecting is Consciously Letting Go in Compassion.

Service to others is compassionately conscious connection.

Shift to ascension is connecting in conscious compassion.

All essence is vibration, including words and the concepts they form in your heart and mind as you allow them to enter your soul essence in consciousness. These are connecting formulas. What are they vibrationally connecting you to? Soul essence and the grids that will shift All into another plane of existence and expression. These are the crystal grids of trinity and all other grids being constructed in conscious compassion by “lightworkers” all over the planet. Here is the grid for the above three vibrational formulas:

Pythagorean Translation letter to number:	TOTAL	Vowels INNER	Conson. OUTER
Connecting is consciously letting go in Compassion	210	111	99
Service to others is compassionately conscious connection	232	130	102
Shift to ascension is connecting in conscious compassion	224	120	104
TOTAL GRID VIBRATION	666	361	305

The numerology of 666 as we have said on many occasions, is pure Creation Energy. It is the Soul-ar number for enlightenment. It has been overlaid with fear by those who wish to continue to have control and dominion over the hearts and minds of humanity. Within the above vibrations are the encodings of karmic endings and new beginnings for Love in Conscious Connection to All. As many of you know, the inner path or soul urge is represented by the vowels in numerology. The inner path of these trinity phrases reveals a great deal:

- 111 (=3) – trinity connection;*
- 120-12 (=3) – the 12 dimensions of existence*
- 130-13 (=4) – the shift into the 13th dimension or the next plane of existence*
- 361 (=10/1) – the number that indicates a shift into the next spiral thus:*
- 360, a complete circle PLUS 1, a new beginning on a new spiral.*

We will explain all of these encodings to you. (Upcoming discourse on the 12-13 dimensional-plane shift)

The shift that is anticipated by so many of you, is that ascension will be occurring as a potential expression of your soul essence, without the physical transition of form and focus of your individuated energy. In other words, you will not have to die physically to connect to soul essence in full consciousness.

Ascension in incarnate form is the reality that all souls are One, thereby the way this expresses is that it becomes an inconceivable concept that any expression of this one soul, i.e. the individual, can harm another. When this occurs, the true full range of free will expression becomes a reality for all. When this occurs, there is a shift into another plane of existence. For now, you are operating in a plane where the Law of Attraction and Repulsion is the most common operative conscious energy. There is a great deal of mental energy impelling this law (one part of it anyway, Attraction) into collective awareness. When the shift occurs, the next law that becomes prominent is the Law of Confluence and Convergence. This Law is a heart-based weaving together of egoic, logic and cosmic soul purpose. (Confluentia, the Latin root of the word, means a weaving together of two rivers).

The Law of Confluence and Convergence operates in its fullest expression in the next higher plane of existence. In this plane that you are moving to, incarnate souls do not focus on more things or money for themselves and their small circle of family/familiars. In this plane you are moving to, the focus and form is quite different. In this plane of existence, an individual does not expend energy (consciousness) on what "I" want or what "I" need. This next plane is an alignment of divine connection where the greatest good of All is manifested in consciousness by the many. In this plane, there is no hoarding of resources by the few, no holding back of scientific discovery of in the name of profit, no control of people's minds through fear. There is Connection, Compassion and the greatest expression of super-consciousness that creates a New Beginning for Love.

What does "I am One with the Divine" mean? It means Truth. The place where you in your plane of experience get caught up is in the "I" – it is so difficult for you to use this pronoun as well as me and mine, that entire religions have been formed on the premise that the I must be an-I-hilated or destroyed. You cannot possibly destroy the I because it is Source. It is expansion, it is contraction, it is expression, it is creation, it is vision and it is Love. You must become Master Linguists of One Language of Love Supreme.

The understanding of ascension is essentially about translation. What does Translation mean?

translate

c.1300, "to remove from one place to another," also "to turn from one language to another," from L. translatus "carried over," serving as pp. of transferre "to bring over, carry over" (see transfer), from trans- + latus "borne, carried."

(From www.etymonline.com)

To translate means to carry across; to turn or direct across one medium to another. It means to be borne in consciousness from one plane of existence to a higher plane of existence which expresses as Compassion, Connection and Supreme Love.

If you all spoke and understood one language, there would be no confusion. If you all understood the Language of Love Supreme there would be Only Love. The True Translations of Ascension at this time are about the Mastery of Spiritual Linguistics and the movement to Integrated Consciousness. There are no "good or bad" ascension numbers – there are simply expressions of the Divine. The vibrations that align you with connection rather than separation however, are the Keys to Translation Alchemy. These are the 111-222-333-444-555-666-777-888-999-000 GRIDS of connection. These are the translations we will be giving you. With these Keys, you will enter the next plane of existence and expression, The Quintessence Plane of Ascension.

For now, we give you one of the aligning vibrations of ascension:

Conscious Soul Evolution: Love

Vibration: 111
