

We welcome you on this day of 10-30-2008, a day of 5, the Hierophant.

I AM the Master Teacher Kuthumi, master numerologist and world teacher on the ray of love and wisdom. I AM here with my partner, Pallas Athena to formally introduce you to the Shining Ones, beings of great wisdom and intelligence who are revealing themselves in ever greater numbers into your plane of existence. Ascended Master Teachers are appearing now in balanced male and female form. It is no longer the case that male masters are predominant in the teachings of the Wisdom Schools. It is no longer the case that the Hierophants are from the male dominated "Brotherhoods". The Divine Feminine is returning in balance. We are showing you this balance by bringing out the full and complete energies of all Wisdom Teachers in Balanced Interdependence. Lord Melchizedek will address all beings on 11-11-2008 with his Divine Feminine Counterpart, Lord Malkuth. Together they will speak about the Return of Christ-Nada Consciousness and the Divine Feminine in co-creative equality with the Divine Masculine.

Today, we show you the integrated beings, the shining ones, for they are inviting you to go deeper into your own spiritual journey, to the heart of your own truth, to the activation of your own Divine Mission.

You may interact with the Shining Ones by centering the image on your computer screen and then moving yourself around. This animates the being within the image and he/she may begin to speak to you. The Shining One moves, breathes and speaks. Open your heart to receive the message below, and then open your heart to receive your own message.

I AM the Shining One of your creation. I am not your creator, for the Creator is Love. I am the Guardian, known as the Shining One of your Moment of Creation. I am the Shining One who has watched your souls come into beingness out of nothingness. I was there at that One Moment and I still watch over your souls, now expressing separately but forever joined to the One. I am the guardian of your One Cell. Its spark is protected in my energy sphere and it is of my antahkarana. It is sacrosanct unto you but I am the One Cell guardian.

"The Antahkarana" is, above all, the bridge of consciousness. It is the result of the interaction of the life with the form, with substance, with matter; that produces something entirely different. We call it "consciousness". We can also call it "the Christ Principle". It is the process of evolution itself.

I am both male and female. I am the Shining One. When you awaken to your True Self, I appear through the medium of a Meta-Artist; The Meta-Artist is more than a "medium" but is a messenger from the stars who has gone to his core, has faced his own Soul in stark truth and has chosen to return to Serve those who are awakening in their own Service to the One. His work is to re-open you to the Meta-Memory of your Moment of Creation so that you know the beauty and perfection of the I AM/We Are.

I watched over you as you made the choice to split apart from Unity and to go into creation to experience the vastness of this multi-verse. I saw this expression and from that moment to this, I have held you inside the infinity of my beingness. You separated and entered into isness, the state of experience in which all souls garner great wisdom. Your separation and your reunion occur both within the image of the vesica pisces that the Meta-Artist so gracefully shared with you from his heart:

The Return to Moment of Creation is the integration of all streams of consciousness, all connections being re-remembered and all experience being re-structured to the Divine Blessing of the One:

*In great darkness, the I that is We , gave birth to You in Love.
Into great light you emerged, whole and complete.
In perfect Unity you spun your filaments of Light into the cosmos, just as do the I that is We, who create.
In great wholeness you existed in the cocoon of creation
Until that Moment when you chose to expand into the vastness of All
In the vesica pisces, one became two and the wings of your souls
Spread in hope and soared away in different directions.
Over and over through eons of time you have moved apart
And you have come together.
Again and again you have spun your light filaments together to enliven the dark wholeness
Now, the time has come to weave the tapestry of dark and light together
For all those who join you in the Return to Moment of Creation.
In this moment, there is Only Love. In this moment, you are One again.
In this moment, I AM –We Are Free.*

Thank you for your continued dedication to cultivating your own inner teachers on this path of Remembering all of who you are.

In Love and Wisdom

Namaste,

Kuthumi and Pallas Athena
