

3-31-2008

We welcome you on this final day of March, 2008. I AM Lord Melchizedek in Presence with my co-creative feminine partner, Lord Malkuth. This month has been one of a powerful emergence of what we are calling the New Now. The New Now is a living, breathing reality that is emerging into consciousness that Love is the energy that will change your reality. Not thoughts, not the mind-based ego, but the Eternal Love that created you and is your core essence. Love is not an emotion, contrary to your belief. Love is Creation Energy. Love is energy emanating from Source and Source is within you. When you create from Love, abundance abounds.

New Now Only Love is a balancing vibration represented in numerology by 70: 35:35. We show you this in order that you allow the vibration to re-encode into your DNA-LNA. (LNA =Light Network of Ascension)

You have all felt the energetic shift into “something” new and different. This month of March has been accelerating for all of you. You have experienced a massive, megaton change that has impacted all conscious beings throughout the Universe. You are experiencing the final phase of alignment for Ascension.

It has also been a very challenging month for most of you. Old beliefs systems based on limitation and lack have been brought to the surface of your New Now in order for you to make a choice: do you choose love or do you choose fear? Relationships and connections between people, substances, your body-mind-heart, jobs, and even material objects (such as cars and houses) have been showing signs of strain and instability in order to propel you into the fullness of this New Now: to choose Only Love as you consciously intake what the Great I AM Consciousness is bringing forth to be reborn anew.

The traditional theme of Spring is Rebirth; In your lifetimes when you were in synchrony with the cycles of nature and the cycles of the moon, you celebrated this time as a return to fruitfulness and light. The first full moon of Spring was the marking time of the festivals of Rebirth. In Christianity, the Easter celebration was placed at the same time as the first Spring full moon in order to align with the deeply engrained cultural practices of Rebirth.

Spring 2008 is exponentially more powerful than all other times because it contains the Seeds of Rebirth-Reawakening-Remembering.

What is it that you are rebirthing, reawakening and remembering? That All is within; that the events taking place on the “outside” are but a reflection of your soul’s emergence into the fullness and power of the One I AM. There is a shift underway. That shift is requiring that all aspects of temporal darkness be brought to light. Things that have been shrouded under secrecy are now being unveiled. There are no more “mystery schools and mystery teachings”. There is a great revealing that is happening now to those who have the courage to Ask. This is a time of Return to the Christ-Buddha-Moses Consciousness in sacred balance with the Mary-Samantabhadri-Zipporah, the Divine Feminine. (note: this is a reference to Mary Magdalene; Samantabhadri - the Great Mother who produces all Buddhas of the three ages, and Zipporah, the wife of Moses.)

What heralds this powerful Spring Awakening? Two events of a cosmic nature: The beginning of Solar Cycle 24, an 11.1 year cycle predicted to peak in 2012, and on March 19, 2008, just before the Spring Equinox in the northern hemisphere, the largest gamma ray burst explosion ever recorded and ever witnessed with human eyes.

We spoke of gamma ray bursts at the end of 2007 with a plea to you to assist in the transmutation of these potentially catastrophic interstellar events into the energy of enlightenment and love. On 11-9-2007, a 9-11 call went out to you in the following manner:

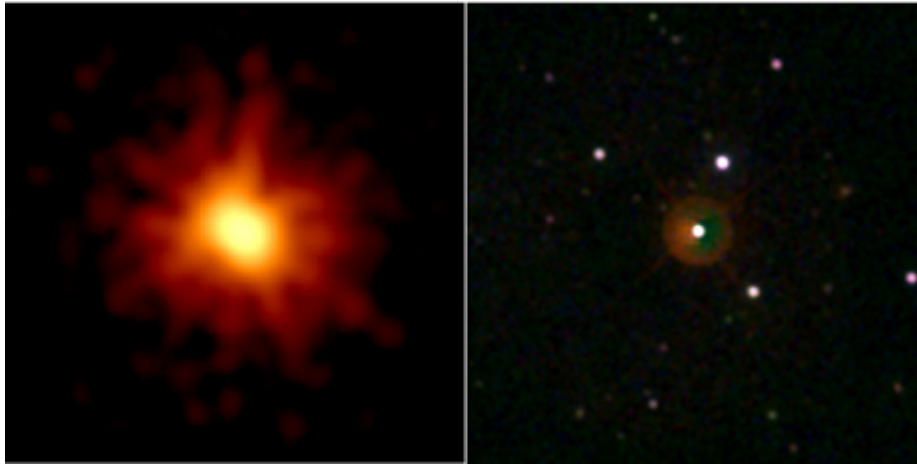

“We ask you to Ask for the transmutation of the gamma ray bursts into Living, Loving Light. We are calling on the Exponential Power of Love to heal all things.”

This is what we are asking you to Do:
become a Living Channel of Love.

So many of you heeded this call that what has occurred is a transmutation of probable reality of a nearby gamma ray burst which may have impacted life on earth, to a magnificent GRB which came into your reality from a very distant place halfway across the known universe. Love creates positive change. Love creates the living fabric of ascension.

Universe's most powerful blast ever seen witnessed this week

Posted by Mark Frauenfelder, March 21, 2008 10:42 AM | permalink

A gamma ray burst that occurred 7.5 billion years ago was visible on Earth by the naked eye this week. It was "2.5 million times brighter than the most powerful supernova ever seen."

Here's a History Channel video about Gamma ray bursts. "Scientists at the University of Kansas believe gamma ray bursts were responsible for a great mass extinction on Earth 450 million years ago. The gamma rays strip away the ozone layer and generates a chemical smog, producing a widespread chill that grips the globe. Every few seconds, a supernova emits jets of deadly gamma rays somewhere in the galaxy. If one of these gamma ray bursts should happen sufficiently close to the solar system, all life would perish."

GRB 080319B, located more than halfway across the visible universe, crushes the previous record holder for most distant object visible without assistance by three orders of magnitude. That would be the galaxy M33, located just 2.9 million light-years from Earth. Researchers are still unsure why GRB 080319B was so bright. Some theories include an originating star with an unusual mass, spin, or magnetic field or an especially concentrated energy jet.

We will provide for you the esoteric explanation of why this GRB was "So bright". Again, we use the powerful substantiation of vibration and number and its correlation to the Aura-Soma® color energy system to show you undeniably the meaning of such a phenomenal cosmic event.

The GRB was encoded/named as #080319B. (Note: GRB's are named according to the system yy/mm/dd with letters added to indicate multiple GRBs in one day). The numerology of 080319B equates to $0+8+0+3+1+9+2$ ($b=2$) which is 23. Bottle #23 in the Aura Soma® system is called Light and Love.

Main Theme of #23: Regaining self-love. The wisdom to find the love within

We asked you to become a channel of Living, Loving Light. This spectacular GRB was the gift of the One to all of humanity, now entering the final phase of Ascension. When was this gift conceived of? By your calculations in light years, 7.5 billion years ago. This is what you conceive of as slightly over $\frac{1}{2}$ of the age of the universe, now considered to be 13.73 billion years. (We posit that your scientists will not accurately gauge the age of the observable universe until they understand the mystery of dark matter and cosmic neutrinos.)

<http://www.nytimes.com/2008/03/09/science/space/09cosmos.html>

The Missing Neutrinos

The Sun should produce more than twice as many neutrinos than are observed. These ghostly subatomic particles are released by nuclear reactions in the Sun's core. They then pass directly through the Sun and out into space. Detecting neutrinos is difficult, but the results from several independent experiments now confirm that only about a third of the expected numbers are counted here on Earth. Solar astronomers have attempted to alter their models of the Sun and its evolution over the last 4.5 billion years to make a model of the Sun that produces fewer neutrinos. These attempts have proven to be unsuccessful. This has led many scientists to question our understanding of neutrinos themselves. This final mystery may thus shake some of the foundations of Physics itself.

When did you witness and feel its effects? On 3-19 through 3-23-2008, in the powerful confluence of Spring Equinox, Full Moon in Libra and Easter/Resurrection. What does this mean for you incarnate human-souls? It means that you are moving forward in mass solar-soular consciousness towards Ascension. There are many concepts and descriptions of ascension that become mental-based constructs. Let us suggest that you simply open your heart today and let go of the need to “understand” that which is not knowable with the mind. Open your heart and see the beauty of the Cosmic Creator that placed this gift into the timelines 7.5 billion years ago, so that in the New Now, you will feel the joy of emerging bliss through reunification with the Divine within.

The second big event is the beginning of the 11.1 year (on average) solar cycle #24 which many of your scientists are predicting to be extremely powerful.

An Explanation of solar cycles: from <http://solarscience.msfc.nasa.gov/SunspotCycle.shtml>

Solar Cycles have been observed in your modern since 1610 when Galileo Galilei made the first European observations of sunspots. Daily observations were started at the Zurich Observatory in 1749 and with the addition of other observatories continuous observations were obtained starting in 1849.

The Sun undergoes an 11 year cycle, beginning at "solar minimum", culminating at "solar maximum", and then calming down toward minimum again. At solar minimum, the Sun's magnetic field lines, reaching from pole to pole, are at their least stressed state.

If there are a lot of sunspots, the magnetic field is most stressed, and the Sun is at its most active. The magnetic flux may get so stressed that it may "reconnect" with opposite polarities, releasing huge amounts of energy as flares. Coronal mass ejections may be unleashed from these flare events, sending hot solar plasma into space. If directed at the Earth, these CMEs can cause damage to satellites, astronauts, even whole power grids on the ground.

Cycle #24:

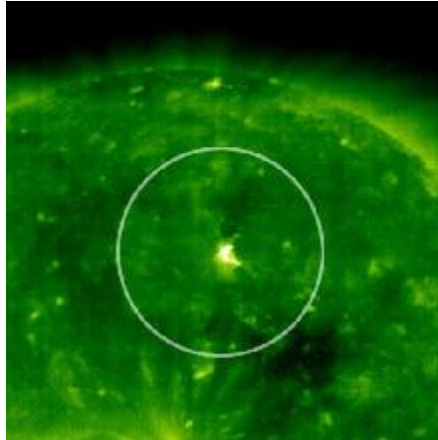

'Maverick' sunspot heralds new solar cycle

A new 11-year solar cycle has officially begun, now that a sunspot has been found with a magnetic field pointing in the opposite direction from those in the previous cycle. But researchers are still divided over how active – and potentially damaging to Earth's satellites and power grids – the new cycle will be. The spot – along with a couple of previous magnetic hints that cycle 24 was underway – suggests the Sun is at or near solar minimum, a time when sunspots in the new cycle outnumber the old.

Just when solar max will occur is up for debate, with some research teams predicting 2011 and others 2012.

Which magnetic polarity leads and which follows in solar active regions alternates with each, roughly 11.1 year solar activity cycle (and is opposite in the Sun's northern and southern hemispheres). Thus the first active region with opposite ordering of polarities is recognized as the harbinger of a new solar cycle. Cycle 24 began last week, when it was officially confirmed on January 4, 2008, that SOHO observed the first "reversed" sunspot of the new solar cycle, something scientists have been seeking for about a year. On that day, the fairly petite active region was officially classified as an active region by NOAA (AR 10981). Since it appeared at a high solar latitude and its magnetic orientation is opposite of the last solar cycle, scientists were convinced that Solar Cycle 24 has begun.

What is the significance of Solar Cycle #24? Perhaps we may see it again, in relation to the corresponding Aura-Soma® energy, the color energy system for the soul.

#24 is New Message.

New Message

Main Theme: New possibilities. Spirit is communicated by the heart.

New possibilities are opening up for humanity and for universal alignments into harmony and peace each and every day. The possibilities include several potential scenarios which are not yet determined. Your world is increasingly dependent on highly sensitive electronic technologies that are vulnerable to the increasing solar flares and coronal mass ejections. Never before has humanity been so reliant on the functioning of orbiting satellite technologies and electronic grids.

This will indeed be a time of new possibilities as you learn that it is not technology that will set you free, it is Love.

Perhaps you remember a time in your soul's history when technology was valued more than the holistic, balanced relationship between technology and the incarnate soul. Perhaps in the months ahead, you will find a way to allow your heart to communicate with the spirit within. For many things are changing, your reality is shifting, you are being called to reawaken and to remember your True Being. We say again, the Universe is not mental, the Universe is Love, the emanating Source of All Creation

For most of you, the Rebirth is now underway. You are listening with your heart, honoring your path, living in truth, finding your center of peace within. How do we know this? You have begun to let go of the old ways of fear and you are moving into alignment.

For most of you, the Remembering All of who you Are has been the impetus to make dramatic and bold life changes. It has also come with being at peace with what is vs. struggling with what is not.

For many people, the full Reawakening will only happen when they have no choice but to slow down from this:

- the hectic pace of electronic-based instant gratification and multi-tasking.
- artificial connections with people and value-laden connections with things.
- thinking that you are separate from what you experience in your outer reality, whether that be a malfunctioning cell phone battery or enduring artificially contrived wars ‘for’ freedom, ‘against’ terrorism and ‘on’ drugs. Aha! What is Truth?
- imagining that you can work at job that is out of alignment with your soul.
- believing that what you think and do as an individual, does not matter on a global scale.

You see, our Beloveds, when you again chop wood and carry water, with no artificial distractions, you often find your own eternal, enlightened being. You often find your heart and soul again.

This sun cycle #24 will be unlike any other 11.1 year (average) cycle that has been observed and noted since 1610. It will strain the earth’s electromagnetic grid and test your dependence on the “things” that you value and believe define who you are. This is not a prediction of catastrophe, but a wake up call for you to see the New Possibilities coming as the old gives way to balance, to a return to Truth and to an honoring of the restorative powers of Love.

In this regenerative time of Spring 2008, we enjoin you again:

Become a Living Channel of Love

This is a Start Code. Start codes are seeded into your reality for you to Begin Anew. Start codes begin with 1-2-3. They are all around you if you being to let go and reconnect, as suggested by Master Sananda, to the Divine within.
